Baw Baw Shire Sporting Walk of Fame

Nomination Guide

History

Located in Civic Park, Warragul, the Baw Baw Shire Sporting Walk of Fame was created in 1999 after a community committee was developed by then Baw Baw Shire Council Recreation Officer, the late Mike Goyne.

The committee's objective was to look at a way to turn the 2000 Sydney Olympic Torch relay stop in the region into a significant event. Linking the Olympics with their interest in the ongoing recognition of the Baw Baw Shire's champion athletes, the committee created the Baw Baw Shire Sporting Walk of Fame.

After creating a series of guidelines, the committee began reviewing nominated athletes and on 9 August 2000, the anniversary of the Olympic Torch visit, Council formally launched the Sporting Walk of Fame with the induction of 5 local athletes.

Following the first inductions, the committee began seeking nominations from the public utilising the guidelines they created. Between 2001 and 2008 the committee inducted another 12 athletes, with all inductees having a commemorative plaque installed along the pathway in Civic Park, Warragul. There would be no inductees for the next 9 years.

Following a petition presented to Council in 2016 the Baw Baw Shire Sporting Walk of Fame had another athlete inducted; until 2019, this was the last inductee.

On 9 October 2019, Council formally took on the responsibility of deciding the result of an athlete's nomination and induction into the Baw Baw Shire Sporting Walk of Fame.

Guidelines for Nomination

To ensure that only the most deserving athletes are inducted into the Sporting Walk of Fame, the following guidelines have been developed to assist in the review of nominations:

- Athletes awards are for significant and sustained performance at a very high level in open competition.
- Athletes performances will usually be at a national or international level in unrestricted competition in sports of significance.
- Performances in team activity must be able to indicate that the performance or performances of the nominee were significant rather than merely as a member of a high-level team.
- In special cases, a successful state level athlete may warrant the inclusion of a person where the performance was of significance.
- Performances in areas of a limited field of endeavour will generally be given careful consideration before being included in awards.
- Inductees are generally expected to be of good character.
- Residential qualifications are flexible. However, an individual who is acknowledged with this prestigious award will generally be a person who resided in the Shire for a significant period of their life and started on the path of sporting success whilst a Shire resident.
